ORDINANCE No. 84/2019
of the Rector of the University of Wrocław of 10 June 2019

on the principles for charging fees for provided educational services as well as the mode and conditions of reimbursement and exemption from such fees for students and doctoral students of the University of Wrocław

Pursuant to Article 23, section 1 in connection with Article 79, section 3 of the Act of 20 July 2018. - Law on Higher Education and Science (Journal of Laws of 2022, item 574, as amended), it is ordered as follows:

I. Principles of charging fees for provided educational services for Polish citizens and foreigners

- § 1. The University of Wrocław charges fees for educational services related to:
- 1) education on part-time studies and in part-time doctoral studies (paid studies);
 - 2) education on studies and doctoral studies conducted in English (paid studies);
 - 3) education of foreigners in full-time studies (paid studies);
 - 4) repetition of specific of classes due to unsatisfactory academic performance,
 - 5) education on studies and doctoral studies as part of courses not included in the study programme;
 - 6) additional classes and exams in a foreign language.

§ 2. The amount of fees referred to in § 1 for each consecutive academic year shall be determined by the Rector of the University of Wrocław by a separate ordinance by the end of March of the year preceding the academic year, taking into account the rules set forth in the Law - on higher education and science.

§ 2a. The obligation to pay the fees referred to in § 1 is imposed on the student by law and is independent of whether the student enters into an agreement with the University of Wrocław on the terms and conditions of charging for educational services.

§ 3.1. The University of Wrocław may reduce or not charge fees when the University obtains extra-budgetary funds to finance or subsidize the study programme or when it results from agreements concluded by the University.

2. The Rector may decide not to charge fees to a foreigner admitted to a degree program on the basis of separate agreements on recruitment.

3. The dean or the head of a non-departmental unit, in particularly justified cases, may give permission for free participation in selected classes conducted as part of English-language studies by people studying in Polish, taking into account the didactic and financial capabilities of the organizational unit.

§ 4.1. The student/doctoral candidate shall pay the fees referred to in § 1 items 1-3 in the form of a semester fee equal to half of the annual fee, subject to sections 2 and 3, by the deadlines:

- 1) by 10 October for the winter semester;
- 2) by 5 March for the summer semester.
- 3) for the first semester – by 15 October, and if the agreement is concluded after 15 October within 7 days of the conclusion of the agreement.

2. A foreigner taking up paid studies shall pay the fee for the first year of study within 14 days of accepting the educational offer.

3. Fee paid by a foreigner for the first year of study and is not subject to semester instalments. In justified cases, the Rector, at the request of the foreigner, may extend the deadline for payment of the fee or agree to pay the fee in installments.

3a. Fee paid by a foreigner for the first year of study and is not subject to semester instalments. In justified cases, the Rector, at the request of the foreigner with the opinion of the dean or the head of a non-faculty unit, may extend the deadline for payment of the fee or agree to pay the fee in two installments, payable before the beginning of the first and second semesters. In particular, an applicant who remains in a difficult financial situation is considered a legitimate case:

- 1) has the status of a refugee in the Republic of Poland or
- 2) is a graduate of first-cycle, second-cycle or long-cycle studies at the University of Wrocław.

4. Fees for repeating the student/doctoral candidate shall pay on time:

- 1) by 15 October for the winter semester;
- 2) by 10 March for the summer semester.

5. The fees referred to in § 1, subject to sections 2 and 3, may be paid by all students/doctoral students in installments established by the council of the organizational unit at the request of the dean or the head of the non-faculty unit, with the proviso that the required fee must be paid in full no later than 7 days before the scheduled date for completing classes (including taking an exam).

6. Fees for classes not included in the study programme and additional classes and examinations in a foreign language shall be paid by the student on the dates specified in paragraph 1, items 1 and 2.

7. Fees in PLN or EUR should be paid to the appropriate bank account indicated in the agreement on the terms and conditions of charging for educational services with the album number in the title of the transfer.

8. The date of payment of the fee/rate is considered to be the date of its receipt in the bank account of the University of Wrocław.

9. If the deadline for payment of the fee/rate falls on a legal holiday, it shall be moved to the nearest working day.

10. If the fee/rate is not paid by the applicable deadline, statutory interest will be charged for late payment.

11. In the event of failure to pay the fees/rates referred to in § 1, section 1, items 1-4 within the applicable period, the student/doctoral student may be struck from the list of students/doctoral students.

12. In the event of failure to pay the fees referred to in § 1, section 1, items 4-6, the student/doctoral student may not be admitted to the course.

13. The crediting of payments made on account of receivables for educational services shall be made to the debt with the longest maturity.

14. The dean or head of a non-faculty unit shall indicate the classes (including course components and elements of educational modules) for which fees are charged.

15. The dean or head of a non-departmental unit shall supervise the correctness of the collection of fees for educational services provided in the managed unit, including their timely billing and payment.

§ 5. In the case of reactivation for fee-based studies, the dean or head of a non-faculty unit shall determine the fee for the semester (year) for which the student is enrolled, taking into account the number of subjects considered to have been passed and the subjects to be completed. In determining the amount of fees, the dean or head of a non-faculty unit shall take into account the rates for repetition of courses in studies, as specified in the Rector's ordinance referred to in § 2.

§ 5a.1. In a situation of repeating a year of studies or other interruptions in the course of studies, resulting in a change in the student's binding cycle of studies, the amount of fees for provided educational services will be determined based on the rates resulting from the Ordinance of the Rector of the University of Wrocław on fees for studies at the University of Wrocław binding for the cycle of studies the student is recruited in.

2. The regulations referred to in section 1 apply to students beginning their education in the 2022/2023 academic year.

§ 6.1. The dean or the head of a non-faculty unit, granting permission for conditional continuation of studies, determines the amount of fees guided by the rates applicable to the repetition of classes, if required.

2. The fee paid by the student, in the case of passing subjects, is deducted from the fees required for the semester or year.

§ 7.1. In the event of termination of the agreement that a student/doctoral student has concluded with the University of Wrocław on the terms and conditions of charging for provided educational services before the end of the semester, the University - at the request of the student/doctoral student - shall reimburse the interested party a part of the fee for the period falling after the termination of the agreement on the basis of a decision of the dean or the head of a non-faculty unit determining the amount of the fee to be reimbursed, subject to § 9 section 1 of this Ordinance.

2. The refundable fee is calculated as follows: the semester fee is divided by the total number of hours in the teaching period (as determined by the Rector's announcement on the organization of the academic year) and multiplied by the number of hours falling between the date of termination and the last day of teaching.

3. The deadline for reimbursement of the amount due to the student/doctoral student is 21 days from the date of submission of a complete application for refund of the overpaid fee. The fee shall be refunded to the account indicated by the student/doctoral student or at the University's cashier's office, reducing it by the fees (cash benefits) due to the University from the student/doctoral student.

4. The application of the student or doctoral student, together with the decision of the dean or head of the non-faculty unit, is forwarded to the Bursar's Office of the University of Wrocław in order to realize the refund of the overpaid fee.

5. The decision of the dean or head of a non-faculty unit is not an administrative decision within the meaning of the Code of Administrative Procedure.

§ 8.1. If the student/doctoral candidate is in arrears with the fee as at the date of termination of the agreement, he/she is obliged to pay the fee in the amount due up to the date of termination.

2. If the agreement is terminated during a semester, the outstanding fee for that semester is calculated as follows: the semester fee is divided by the total number of hours in the teaching period (as determined by the Rector's announcement on the organization of the academic year) and multiplied by the number of hours from the first day of teaching to the date of termination.

3. In the event of non-payment of the overdue fee referred to in section 1 within 14 days from the date of receipt of the call for payment, the University shall pursue the overdue fees for the educational services provided in court proceedings.

§ 9.1. To a foreigner, the fee for the first year of study is refundable only in the case:

- 1) resignation from studies before the start of the academic year. The amount of the fee paid, reduced by the handling fee, shall be refunded;
- 2) failure to obtain a visa for entry into Poland or cancellation of the visa. The amount of the fee paid, reduced by the handling fee, shall be refunded;
- 3) receipt of the decision to grant a semester/year of dean's leave. The fee for the period of non-attendance is refundable;
- 4) resignation from studies for health reasons confirmed by an appropriate medical certificate. The fee for the time not taken for health reasons is refundable.

2. Apart from the cases mentioned in section 1, the tuition fee is refundable if the University of Wrocław - for reasons beyond its control - did not ensure participation in the study programme previously offered to the candidate.

3. In the case of students recruited for the University by recruitment agencies, the amount of the fee refund is reduced by the commission of the recruiting agency, if the cancellation of the continuation of study occurs in the first year of study.

4. When applying for a fee refund, the foreigner shall submit a properly completed Fee Refund Form, which is attached to this Ordinance, and a confirmation of non-receipt of the visa/copy of the entire passport as a confirmation of non-receipt of the visa or a copy of the cancelled visa, a decision on granting dean's leave, a medical certificate.

5. The documents referred to in section 4, the foreigner shall submit in:

- 1) International Office, in the case referred to in section 1, items 1 and 2 - if he/she studies on a degree programme conducted in English;
- 2) Department of Teaching, in the case referred to in section 1, items 1 and 2 - if he/she studies on a degree programme conducted in Polish;
- 3) in the relevant dean's office, in the case referred to in section 1 items 3 and 4.

II. Mode and conditions of exemption from fees for educational services provided § 10.1. The University of Wrocław may exempt a student/doctoral student who is a Polish citizen from fees for provided educational services related to:

- 1) education on part-time studies and in part-time doctoral studies (paid studies);
- 2) education on studies and doctoral studies conducted in English (paid studies);
- 3) repetition of certain classes in studies and doctoral studies due to unsatisfactory academic performance.

2. The dean or head of a non-faculty unit, when exempting a student/doctoral student from the fees referred to in section 1, takes into account in particular the financial result of the previous calendar year and the current and future financial situation of the unit. The financial consequences of decisions made are borne solely by the organizational unit concerned.

§ 11.1. At the request of a student/doctoral student, the dean or the head of a non-faculty unit - taking into account the provisions of § 10 section 2 - may exempt him/her in whole or in part from the obligation to pay the fees referred to in § 10 section 1, if the applicant meets all of the following conditions:

- 1) income per person in the family of the student/doctoral student does not exceed the amount of income entitling the student/doctoral student to apply for a social scholarship at the University of Wrocław;
 - 2) there will be particularly important circumstances that make it impossible for the student/doctoral student to pay the fee in full or in part.
2. Particularly important circumstances referred to in section 1 item 2 include:
- 1) full orphanhood;
 - 2) serious or prolonged illness of the student/doctoral student or immediate family member (lasting more than 6 months);
 - 3) a fortuitous event (e.g. fire, flood);
 - 4) exceptionally difficult financial or living situation of the student/doctoral student;
 - 5) pursuing a programme of study to a certain extent under agreements concluded between the University of Wrocław and domestic or foreign universities, which involves additional costs borne by the student/doctoral student if the above circumstances prevent the student/doctoral student from paying the full or partial fee;

3. The dean or the head of a non-faculty unit may exempt a student/doctoral student from payment of fees, even though the income per person in the family exceeds the amount, referred to in section 1 item 1, if the circumstances particularly justify such a decision.

§ 12. At the request of a student/doctoral student, the dean or the head of a non-faculty unit may - taking into account the provisions of § 10 section 2 - exempt in part from the obligation to pay the fee referred to in § 10 section 1 items 1 and 2, not more than 25% of the fee due, if the applicant meets all of the following conditions:

- 1) has a Large Family Card, as referred to in the Act of 5 December 2014 on the Large Family Card (i.e., Journal of Laws of 2017, item 1832, as amended);
- 2) income per person in the family of the student/doctoral student does not exceed 150% of the amount of income entitling the student/doctoral student to apply for a social scholarship at the University of Wrocław;
- 3) submits a documented application in accordance with the provisions of § 15.

§ 13. In situations referred to in § 11 and in § 12 a student/doctoral student may apply for fee exemption no earlier than after the first semester of study (first and second-cycle studies, long-cycle studies or doctoral studies).

§ 14 Submitting an application for exemption in whole or in part from the fees referred to in § 10 section 1 does not relieve the student/doctoral student from the obligation to pay the fee by the required deadline.

§ 15.1. A student/doctoral student applying for exemption from the fees referred to in § 10, section 1, in whole or in part, in situations referred to in § 11, sections 1 and 3, and § 12, is obliged to comprehensively document the application:

- 1) the amount of own income and that of all family members, obtained in the calendar year preceding the academic year in which the student/doctoral student applies for fee exemption;
- 2) the occurrence of particularly important circumstances that prevent him from paying the full or partial fee or having a Large Family Card in the case of the situation referred to in § 12.

2. The monthly amount of income per person in the family of a student/doctoral student and the method of documenting it is determined in accordance with the rules set forth in the Regulations on Benefits for Students. In particularly justified cases, the dean or the head of a non-faculty unit may designate another period for which the student/doctoral student is to document income or another way to document income.

3. The administrative staff of the faculty/ organizational unit appointed by the dean or the head of the non-faculty unit, respectively, are responsible for the proper completion of the documentation and for the correct calculation of the income per person in the family of the student/doctoral student.

4. In the absence of complete documentation referred to in section 1, item 1, the employee referred to in section 3 shall call - in writing - the student/doctoral student to supplement the application within 7 days from the date of delivery of the call.

5. A documented application for exemption from the fees referred to in § 10, section 1, in whole or in part - the student/doctoral student is required to submit to his/her dean's office or the appropriate organizational unit, within a deadline of 7 calendar days from the end of the corrective examination session of the previous semester.

6. An application submitted after the deadline referred to in section 5 will not be considered. The deadline for filing an application is not subject to reinstatement. This includes the submission of an incomplete application, not completed by the deadline.

7. The administrative staff of the faculty/organizational unit designated by the dean or head of the non-faculty unit, respectively, is responsible for the proper preparation of the decision and its timely delivery to the student/doctoral student concerned.

§ 16.1. A student/doctoral student has the right to appeal against the decision made by the dean or the head of a non-faculty unit, based on the authorization of the Rector of the University of Wrocław, concerning the exemption from the fees referred to in § 10 section 1:

- 1) the right to apply to the Rector for reconsideration. The application is submitted to the dean's office or the appropriate organizational unit within 14 days from the date of receipt of the decision or
- 2) complaint to the Provincial Administrative Court without submitting an application to the Rector for reconsideration. The complaint shall be submitted to the dean's office or the appropriate organizational unit within 30 days of receiving the decision.

2. The Rector's decision issued as a result of the reconsideration of the case may be appealed by the student/doctoral student to the Provincial Administrative Court. The complaint shall be submitted to the dean's office or the appropriate organizational unit within 30 days of receiving the decision.

3. If a student/doctoral student who is a Polish citizen submits an application for reconsideration, the dean's office/organizational unit is required to immediately forward the application with documentation to the Student Affairs Department. The documentation should include the decision against which the student/doctoral student submits a request for reconsideration, along with a set of documents on the basis of which the decision was made and the position of the dean or head of the non-departmental unit as to the allegations raised in the request.

§ 17 The University of Wrocław may exempt a student/doctoral student who is a foreigner from fees for provided educational services related to:

- 1) education on part-time studies and in part-time doctoral studies (paid studies);
- 2) education on studies and doctoral studies conducted in English (paid studies);
- 3) education on full-time studies (paid studies);
- 4) repetition of certain classes in studies and doctoral studies due to unsatisfactory academic performance.

§ 18.1. At the request of a foreign student/doctoral student, the dean, the dean responsible for education or the head of a non-faculty unit may exempt him/her in whole or in part from the obligation to pay the fees referred to in § 17 if there are important circumstances, in particular, such as:

- 1) full orphanhood;
- 2) serious or prolonged illness of the student/doctoral student or immediate family member (lasting more than 6 months);
- 3) a fortuitous event (e.g. fire, flood);
- 4) exceptionally difficult financial or living situation of the student/doctoral student;
- 5) pursuing a programme of study to a certain extent under agreements concluded between the University of Wrocław and domestic or foreign universities, which involves additional costs borne by the student/doctoral student if the above circumstances prevent the student/doctoral student from paying the full or partial fee;
- 6) taking up his/her studies in a second field of study or education in another form at the University of Wrocław under the conditions of payment.

2. In the situations referred to in section 1, items 1 - 5, the student/doctoral candidate may apply for fee waiver no earlier than after the first year of study.

3. A documented application for exemption from fees in full or in part, a foreigner is required to submit to the dean's office or the appropriate organizational unit, within a deadline of 7 calendar days from the end of the corrective examination session of the previous semester.

4. An application submitted after the deadline referred to in section 3 will not be considered. The deadline for filing an application is not subject to reinstatement.

5. Decisions on exemption in whole or in part from the obligation to pay the fees referred to in § 17 are made by the dean, the vice dean for education or the head of a non-faculty unit.

§ 19.1. A foreign student/doctoral student is entitled to appeal against the decision of the dean, the vice-dean for education or the head of a non-faculty unit regarding the exemption of fees referred to in § 17, made under the authorization of the Rector:

- 1) the right to apply to the Rector for reconsideration. The application is submitted to the dean's office or the appropriate organizational unit within 14 days from the date of receipt of the decision or
- 2) complaint to the Provincial Administrative Court without submitting an application to the Rector for reconsideration. The complaint shall be submitted to the dean's office or the relevant organizational unit within 30 days of receiving the decision.

2. The Rector's decision may be appealed by the student/doctoral student to the Provincial Administrative Court. The complaint shall be submitted to the dean's office or the appropriate organizational unit within 30 days of receiving the decision.

§ 20. The documents referred to in § 18, section 3 and § 19 reviewed by the dean or head of an organizational unit are forwarded by the appropriate dean's office or organizational unit to:

- 1) International Office, in the case of a foreigner studying in English;
- 2) Teaching Department, in the case of a foreigner studying in Polish.

§ 21 If the application of a student/doctoral student, including a foreigner, for a fee waiver is granted, the waiver amount paid shall be credited against the fee for the next semester or returned to the student/doctoral student upon his/her written request.

III. Transitional and final provisions

§ 22.1. To foreigners who took up studies under the rules applicable to Polish citizens before 1 October 2019, § 10 - § 16 of this Ordinance shall apply to the completion of the educational cycle.

2. Foreigners with whom the University of Wrocław concluded an agreement on the terms and conditions of payment for educational services provided before the academic year 2019/2020, the fees charged shall remain in force until the agreement is in force or terminated.

§ 23. The Rector shall have the right of binding interpretation of the provisions of this Ordinance.

§ 24. Supervision of the implementation of the Ordinance is entrusted to the Vice-Rector for Teaching Affairs, while in terms of § 10 - § 16 to the Vice-Rector for Student Affairs.

§ 25. The Ordinance takes effect on 1 October 2019.
